

China Know-How 2018

Factsheet for course A

Prerequisites

To participate in this program, participants need to be either of the following:

- student/scientist from an Austrian institution of higher education
- student/scientist from another European institution of higher education
- an employee of an international company or an entrepreneur

Also, participants should have a good command of the English language.

Program

The course includes various means of education, for example modules/lessons, lectures and discussions, visits/trips, as well as an exam.

The main focus of the program lies on economy, politics, law, environment, culture, language and intercultural communication.

Accommodation

Swissôtel Beijing and Grand Mercure Baolong Hotel Shanghai.

Costs

Approx. €2.900,-.

See document on costs and funding on website for further information.

Flight and visa

The flight reservation and visa are to be made by the participant and the costs are not included in the aforementioned €2.900,-.

For further information or unanswered questions, please feel free to contact us using the e-mail address below or the contact form on our website!